

RIVERDALE SHADE TREE COMMISSION

CONTINUING EDUCATION CLASSES

4 CEU's

Wednesday

November 30, 2022

Continental breakfast

7:45 – 8:30 am

Riverdale Community Center

57 Loy Avenue

Riverdale, NJ 07457

Lunch

12:45 – 1:30 pm

$100.00 / Person – Includes Continental Breakfast and Lunch

SPEAKER: NEIL HENDRICKSON

8:00 Registration

8:30 – 10:30 Pest threats to NJ trees and what to do about them

Biotic:

Lanternfly

Beech leaf disease

Emerald ash borer (what to know about dead ash trees-their risk & removal

Ticks (and deer)

Etc.: hemlock woolly adegid, spongy moth, crazy snake worms

Improvements in pest management – IPM, new chemistries

Abiotic:

Herbicide damage

Climate disruption and its various impacts

10:45 – 12:45 Sustainable urban landscapes in a world of climate change & invasive species

Plant selection – natives aren't always the answer

Proper planting – the best way to get your trees to survive

Getting planted trees to survive and thrive

Proper mulching (biochar for street tree pits)

Soil management (do you need fertilizer?)

Pruning to develop a strong and stable structure in trees

Hiring someone who knows what they're doing to protect your investment in your urban landscape.