HEALTH OFFICIAL'S REPORTS: March and April 2023

This season the lakes and pools are being opened and inspected. The Grande was inspected they had some upgrading to do to get up to code, they are good now. Powdermill is open and in compliance for the weekend. Rock Creek crossing is being inspected this week and The Reserve is scheduled for Thursday this week.

Target is planning on doing a major renovation to the plumbing in the front of the store to the main drain. The work will take about a week to complete

Coney Island the coal fire pizza place is no longer open to the public, they are doing catering and using the facility as a commissary for people doing events such as farmers markets, they have a food truck to use. They have to store their food and wash their dishes somewhere so they will still be under the Board of Health.

The Farmers' Market is coming back in June with all the same vendors.

Thereupon Linda Roetman set forth the motion seconded by Chairman Millie Stires to approve the Health Official's reports for March and April 2023.
